

CHINESE AND KOREAN SPIRITS PAIRED WITH DUMPLINGS

Before the weather turns, one last roof top event where we will share a toast and learn about liquor from the East.

We have put together an array of Chinese and Korean “wines” which we will taste straight, on the rocks and as cocktails while sampling plump savory dumplings of all kinds provided by the famous Vanessa’s Dumpling House.

Baijiu, Huangjiu, Mijiu, Shoju, Makgeoli, Bokbunja Ju, and more, names of distilled beverages you might not have heard about but will crave for when you join us for a unique evening of discovering Asian flavors that will awaken your taste buds.
