

THE MULTICULTURAL AUDIENCE DEVELOPMENT INITIATIVE

The Metropolitan Museum of Art's Multicultural Audience Development Initiative reflects the Museum's founding mission to educate and inspire by reaching out to all of its constituencies, including the many diverse communities that comprise the tri-state area. Its objectives are to increase awareness of the Museum's global collection and programs, to diversify its visitorship and membership, and to increase participation in its activities.

For more information on the Initiative visit the Museum's website at www.metmuseum.org/multicultural

Masterpieces of Chinese Painting from the Metropolitan Collection

Through October 11, 2016

Douglas Dillon Galleries

C. C. Wang Family Gallery

Frances Young Tang Gallery

Galleries 210–216

Over the last forty years, the Metropolitan's collection of Chinese painting and calligraphy has grown to be one of the greatest in the world. Replete with masterpieces dating from the Tang dynasty (608–917) to the present, the collection encompasses the vast historical sweep of the brush arts of China, from meticulous court painting to fiercely brushed dragons to lyrical paintings by scholars.

This exhibition, presented in two rotations, will highlight the gems of the permanent collection in a chronological display, with an emphasis on works from the Song (960–1279) and Yuan (1271–1368) dynasties.

The exhibition is made possible by the Joseph Hotung Fund.
