

Asian Women In Business

In partnership with JPMorgan Chase & Co.

Cordially invites you to its
2016 Corporate Asian Women's Leadership Forum

BORN TO LEAD : DEFINING SUCCESS

An evening of discussion and networking featuring top Asian women executives

Wednesday, March 23, 2016 | 6 PM—9 PM

JPMorgan Chase & Co.

383 Madison Avenue, NYC

How do you define success? Is success the attainment of money, power, or honors ?

Some say that success is defined by effectiveness, or balance or how much they love working or what they have done to make a difference. For many, it is taking charge of their own paths. Our panel of high powered Asian women executives will talk about how they have achieved success and what they see as defining moments in their lives which they can proudly say are successes. A reception follows the panel discussion.

“Success is liking who you are, liking what you do, and liking how you do it”

- Maya Angelou

To register, visit www.awib.org/CorporateLeadership

All proceeds go towards the AWIB Scholarship Fund

Asian Women In Business

42 Broadway, Suite 1748, New York, NY 10004

Tel: (212) 868-1368 Fax: (877) 686-6870

Info@awib.org, www.awib.org