cordially invites you to

REINVENTING YOURSELF: CAREER AND LIFE PIVOTS

Hear from Asian women who have refused to be stuck in a place or career, and dared to take risks to change their lives.

We are featuring Chitra Agrawal, a corporate marketing manager who launched a line of Indian condiments; Alice Cheng, an IBM executive who went on to found a startup for culinary professionals; Gurjot Sidhu, a management consultant who now has a collection of professional clothes for women; and Shunan Teng, a financial manager turned tea shop owner.

Is it time for you to make that move?
